

PRESIDENT'S DISTINGUISHED LECTURE SERIES PRESENTS

Doug Lawler '88

President & CEO, Chesapeake Energy Corporation

Culture, Ethics and Business Performance

Tuesday, March 31, 4-5pm

Reception to follow at 5pm

Student Center Ballrooms AB

Free and open to the public

Robert D. "Doug" Lawler has been President and Chief Executive Officer of Chesapeake Energy since June 2013. Before joining Chesapeake, Mr. Lawler held various leadership positions with Anadarko Petroleum Corporation including Senior VP of International and Deepwater Operations, VP of International Operations, VP of Operations for the Southern and Appalachia Region, and VP of Corporate Planning. Mr. Lawler began his career with Kerr-McGee Corporation in 1988 and joined Anadarko following its acquisition of Kerr-McGee in August 2006.

Mr. Lawler currently serves as an Executive Committee member for America's Natural Gas Alliance and is a Board Member of the American Petroleum Institute, Oklahoma Independent Petroleum Association, State Chamber of Oklahoma and Business Roundtable. He serves on the boards of United Way of Central Oklahoma, the Last Frontier Council of the Boy Scouts of America, and the Houston Grand Opera. Mr. Lawler earned a BS in Petroleum Engineering from Mines and an MBA from Rice University.